

Three-Year Student Study plan for History

TENTATIVE COURSE OFFERINGS

The following is a sample that specifies how students will complete their majors in history over three years, and it highlights how they might fulfill their LAC requirements along the way.

A Model History Major based on the 42-credit requirement and indicating how the LAC requirements and other electives might be distributed:

	FALL	SPRING
Second Year (Sophomore)	HST205: Historical Tools (prerequisite for all history courses) HST'221: Greece and Rome (prerequisite) ENG201 PHL201 POL201 INF201	HST231: Lebanon Imarah to 1975-90 War (prerequisite) HST240: History of the Arab Peoples (prerequisite) ENG202 ARA201 PSY201 CSC201
Third Year (Junior)	HST242: Europe and the Middle East HST302: Medieval Europe (prerequisite) HST330: History of Byzantium CST201 POL221 PEDIOI	HST331: History of Russia HST303: Early Modern Europe HST340: Topics in History of Ideas CST202 PEDIII Free Elective
Fourth Year (Senior)	HST41 0: Senior Research Seminar & Senior Study HST342: Topics in History of Religion HST334: History of North America CST301 Free Elective	HST408: Comparative Nationalisms Free Elective Free Elective Free Elective Free Elective (I credit)